通读下面的短文，掌握其大意，然后从各题所给的A、B、C三个选项中选出一个最佳答案。

An old carpenter (木匠) was ready to leave the house-building business. He told his boss of his plan to live a more _____ life with his wife and children because of his age.

The boss was sorry to see his good worker go and asked if he could build just one more house for him. The carpenter said _____, but it was easy to see that his heart was not in work. He worked _____ and used poor materials. It was really a _____ to end his business in such a way.

When the carpenter finished his work. His boss came to the house. Then he _____ the front-door key to the carpenter. "This is your house." he said with a smile, "my gift to you."

What a surprise! If he had only known he was building his own house, he would have done it in a _____ way. If he had only known it, he wouldn't have been that careless, _____ less than the best. With _____, the carpenter had to live in the house built by himself.

Sometimes we are like this carpenter. We build our lives in a careless way. At important points, we do not give the job our best effort. Think of yourself as the carpenter.

Each day you do something to build your own house. _____ build wisely. It is the only life you will ever build. Life is a do-it-yourself project. Your life tomorrow will be the _____ of your attitudes(态度) and the choices you make today.
