My name is Ben Mansury. I'm fifteen years old and study in a middle school. In school, I never join in any group discussion or stage (舞台) program. So, I never knew what stage nervousness was.

Our community (社区) has a weekly "Students Ideas" program. About two years ago, I received a(n) call from the chairman of our community. He invited me to the "Students Ideas" talk the next morning to speak to the group.

The time between his call to the next morning was like several weeks for me. The whole night, I could not sleep. Many _____ were coming. One of them was to call the chairman, with regret, and tell him that I could not come. But finally, I thought, if I missed this _____, the community would never invite me again to any of their programs. So, I decided to go.

I reached the hall in time. When my turn came and I started, my heartbeat increased and my mouth went dry. I wasn't even able to read the words on the paper properly. I had no idea where I was standing and what I was talking. That was the day when I _____ my biggest weakness: public speaking.

After I finished, I met with the chairman and _____ what happened to me. He said that this happens to everyone. It is very _____. He suggested that I should come again the next week.

I _____ a talk carefully. This time when I gave the talk, I was somewhat comfortable but not confident (自信的). Afterwards, I met with the chairman again and told
