"Everything happens for the best." Whenever I faced disappointment, my mother would say so.
After I _____ from college in 1932, I decided to find a job in radio as a sports announcer (广播员). I went to Chicago and knocked at the door of every station.
But _____, I was refused every time. At one station, a kind lady told me that big stations wouldn't hire (雇佣) an inexperienced person and suggested that I try my luck at smaller stations. Following her _____, I went back to Dixon, where I had grown up. There were no radio-announcing jobs in Dixon, and my father said a newly-opened store wanted a local athlete to work for it. I applied for the job, but I was _____ again. "Everything happens for the best," Mom _____ me. Dad offered me the car to look for a job. I _____ WOC Radio in Davenport, Iowa. The program director, Peter MacArthur, said they had hired an announcer. As I left his office, my frustration (挫败感) boiled over. "How can I become a sports announcer _____ I can't get a job in a radio station?" I asked aloud. While I was waiting for the elevator, I heard someone _____ my name. It was MacArthur. "What was that you said about sports? Do you know anything about football?" Then he asked me to broadcast (广播) an imaginary game. _____ with my performance, he offered me a chance to work there.
On my way home, I thought of my mother's words: "If you _____, one day something good will happen. Something wouldn't have happened if not for that previous (之前的) disappointment."
