What is your junior high school life like? Let's have a look at Michael's diaries.

September 12th, Monday

Monday is completely a disaster (灾难) for me! The early morning I found my Maths homework left at home. What's worse, my English teacher always speaks too fast for me to understand every word. Though my classmates all seem friendly, I am afraid I don't have enough time to make friends. I have seven lessons today and the most relaxing one for me was P.E.. Unluckily, I was late. Now it is 9:30 p.m. and I am still working hard on my Maths problem!

January 1st, Saturday

How time flies! Our English week finally comes to an end. This is the most wonderful week for me! On New Years Eve, we held a party and put on Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. I also got first prize in the English speaking competition four days ago. Everybody in my class and my English teacher cheered for me and I felt so excited. I am now preparing for my final exam. I will try my best to do better than that in my mid-term exam.

【1】How many lessons does Michael have on Monday?

A. Five. B. Six. C. Seven. D. Eight.

【2】When did Michael's class put on Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs?

A. On September 12th. B. On January 1st.

C. On Christmas Eve. D. On December 31st.

【3】What do you know from Michael's first diary?

A. He likes Maths most. B. He prefers P.E. most.

C. He enjoys English class. D. He is always late for class.

【4】What can you learn about Michael's feeling from his second diary?

A. He felt excited because it was the last day of English week.

B. He felt happy because he won first prize on Christmas Eve.

C. He felt lucky because his teacher and classmates cheered for him.

D. He felt relaxed because he was preparing for his final exam.
