Music is always important in Chinese people's life. People enjoyto music at home and in concert halls. As time, music changes.
Traditional music is our culture,it often stays with us for a long time. Many of the traditional Chinese songs are around us for many years. Young musicians learn these songs from older musicians and the music changes only very little. Today's musicians write new songs every year and we hear new songs the radio every day.
Before the invention(发明) of radio and TV, people had to go to places where musicians gave performances(表演). The famous musicians usually workedand the tickets cost too much, so there were only a few chances for people to hear really good music. For most people,chance to hear good music was during a festival. Today, is easy for people to hear music all the time. Radio and TV play songs every day and night and sometimes you can even hear people play music on the street.
One thing hasn't changed very much. modern and traditional Chinese songs are about love and life. Every song something to do with what it means to be a human being. Music changes and styles come and go, but nothing changes love for good music.

One day, Yu Gong told his family that they must move the mountains to the other places this, everyone in his family were laughing at him. One of his sons said,
"Are you kidding?" "No, I'm serious and all of you must do it with me." Everyone was at that time. They really didn't want to do it, but they had to do because

The next day everyone in Yu Gong's family started to dig the mountains. They put the stones and the earth the sea. One day a man saw Yu Gong and his
