When they were back in the evening, the man who took an umbrella got his clothes wet in the rain, the one taking a crutch fell, all covered with mud; but the man with empty hands kept his clothes dry 2 any mud on them. The two men felt it was 3 strange that they asked the third man the reason.

The third traveler didn't reply, 4 he asked the man with an umbrella, "Then why were you caught in the rain without falling?"

"When it was raining, I felt glad for my prediction, and then I opened 5 umbrella and walked in the rain bravely. I didn't think I would be caught in the rain, but 6 my clothes got so wet. When I went to the places which were too muddy to 7, I thought I didn't have a crutch to help out, so I walked very 8. It turned out that I walked all the way back sound and safe."

After 9 what the first man said, the third man then asked the man with a crutch why he became muddled all over himself instead of getting wet.

He answered like this, "When it was raining, I had no umbrella, so I chose those places that protected me from the rain to walk through. But I wasn't so careful in the muddy places because I had a crutch."

Then the empty-handed traveler said, "When it was raining, I chose the places to protect 10 from the rain and in the muddy places I kept careful, so I was neither wet nor muddled."
