1.

It's great to be part of a happy family. It is fun to be with people who like you. It is good to feel the 21 and the love of the ones who care for you. It is fantastic when you can 22 them when you have problems.

23, it is also true that things are not always easy. Young people want to 24 their own personality. Parents 25 think they know better. They find it 26 to accept that their son or daughter wants to think differently from how they used to think when they were 27 themselves. As a result, young people are often unhappy and believe their parents do not 28 them.

Many of my friends would love to be 29 of their parents as soon as possible. They would love to have their own place where they can live the life they imagine must be 30. They think that not having a 31 who tells them to tidy up their rooms or get up at a certain time must be paradise(天堂).

How would I 32 if I were asked whether I wanted to leave home? First of all, there is the financial(财务的) situation. Having your own flat costs a lot of 33. Secondly, being completely 34 also means a lot of responsibility. 35, I admit I like to be reminded of urgent(紧急的) things I have forgotten to do (36 I would never admit that to my parents). And thirdly, if members of a family accept that everybody is an individual and needs a certain amount of 37, life in a family can be great fun.

38, I would not like to be on my own too soon. I would say that I am 39 living with my family for now and I can 40.
