Dear Laura,
I just heard you tell an old story of gift giving and unselfish love in your program. You doubted whether such unselfish love would happen in today's world. Well, I'm here to give you _____.
I wanted to do something very _____ for my fifteen-year-old son, who has always been the perfect child. He _____ all summer to earn enough money to buy a used motorcycle. Then, he spent hours and hours on it _____ it looked almost new. I was so _____ of him that I bought him the shiniest helmet (头盔) and a riding outfit (装备). I could _____ wait for him to open up his gift. In fact, I barely slept the night before. Upon awakening, I went to the kitchen to _____ the coffee, tea, and morning goodies. In the living room was a beautiful keyboard with a _____: "To my wonderful mother, all my love, your son."
I was so _____. It had been a long-standing joke in our family that I wanted a piano so that I could _____ lessons. "Learn to play the piano, and I'll get you one." was my husband's _____.
I stood there shocked, crying a river, asking myself how my son could _____ this expensive gift.
Of course, the _____ awoke, and my son was thrilled (激动的) with my reaction. Many kisses were _____, and I immediately wanted him to _____ my gift.
As he saw the helmet and outfit, the look on his face was not _____ what I was expecting. Then I _____ that he had sold the motorcycle to get me the keyboard.
Of course I was the proudest mother _____ on that day, and my feet never hit the ground for a month.
So I wanted you to know, that kind of love still _____ and lives even in the ever-changing world of me, me, me!
I thought you'd love to _____ this story.
Yours,
Hilary

P.S. The next day, my husband and I bought him a new "used" already shiny motorcycle.
