The US is blessed with many of national parks that are home to some of the most breathtaking landscapes on Earth.

Sequoia National Park

◇ Date of Establishment: September 25 , 1890

◇ Total Area: 1, 635. 19 km²

The place is home to the largest trees in the world. Hiking routes crossing the sequoia groves (红杉林) will take you near these huge trees. These awe-inspiring forests filled with towering trees are a sight to see.

Yosemite National Park

◇ Date of Establishment: October 1, 1890

◇ Total Area: 3, 028. 81 km²

Its main draw is the Yosemite Valley that looks beautiful with its jaw-dropping scenery. Between glacially (由于冰川作用) sculpted cliffs (悬崖) and the towering waterfalls stretching out of the side of the mountains, your eyes will be treated to many natural wonders. The place was named as a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1984.
