The Dezeen x Samsung Out of the Box Competition is a global contest that challenges contestants(参赛者) to design innovative objects for the home that can be made by repurposing cardboard packaging. It's inspired by Samsung's Eco-Packaging, in which some of its televisions are shipped to customers.

Judging criteria

Entries will be judged on how original the idea is, how visually appealing the object is and how useful it would be in the home.

Who can enter

The competition is free to enter for anyone over 18 around the world. Entries from individuals and teams will both be accepted.

How to enter

Contestants will need to submit their entry via the form down-loadable here: <http://www.dezeen.com/samsung-out-of-the-box-competition-entry-form/>. The following information should be included in the form: the name of the design, a description of its concept (maximum 300 words), one to ten images showing the object in use in the home. A video or animation(动画) displaying the design and its assembly(组装) is optional.

Closing date

All entries must be received by 23:59 BST on October 29, 2020.

Shortlist(入围名单) and finalists

In November 2020, Dezeen and Samsung will select a shortlist of the best designs, which will be published on the Dezeen website. In December 2020, five finalists will then be exhibited at IFA Berlin, one of the world's largest trade fairs for consumer electronics. Entrants behind the top five designs will be invited to attend the IFA to present their designs to an English-speaking jury.

Winners and prizes

The competition is awarding $20,000 in total prize money, which will be divided among the top five finalists. The overall winner will receive a top prize of $10,000.
