

山东省泰安市2021届高三下学期英语高考全真模拟试卷

阅读理解(共15小题; 每小题2.5分, 满分37.5分)

1. 阅读理解

阅读理解

Santa Cruz County is home to rough coastline, grand redwoods and tracks to secret beaches making it the primary destination for your next hiking adventure!

West Cliff Drive

Although not considered a traditional "hike", West Cliff Drive delivers on some serious strides with seaside views. Bustling beaches and surf spots to quiet bays and wildlife, this coastal path serves up some breathtaking sceneries. When the path ends, take a glance toward the ocean and see the photogenic Natural Bridges State Beach.

Phone: 8635—0936888

Wilder Ranch State Park

Grasslands, small pines, coastal redwoods, douglas firs (杉树), rough coastline, tide pools, hidden beaches, Victorian farmhouse, barns—need we say more? Wilder Ranch boasts a wide variety of landform and habitat, and offers over 34 miles of hiking, biking and horse tracks winding through coastal terraces (梯田) and valleys.

Phone: 8637—0835886

Henry Cowell Redwoods State Park

Whether you're a family with tiny pets or tough teens, Henry Cowell has a track for you and yours. The main park area features 15 miles of hiking tracks through a variety of forested areas with redwoods, mixed evergreens, yellow pines, and even sand hills. Besides hike, swimming is also allowed in this park!

Phone: 8639—0836886

Berry Creek Falls at Big Basin State Park

Big Basin is California's oldest State Park and is home to the largest continuous stand of Ancient Coast Redwoods south of San Francisco. The park offers over 80 miles of tracks and has a surprising number of waterfalls. It features a series of year-round waterfalls, lush (茂盛的) redwood forest and steep canyons.

Phone: 8637—0835976

(1) Who most probably likes to travel to the parks mentioned in the text?

- A. A lover of climbing. B. A lover of swimming. C. A lover of cycling. D. A lover of hiking.